

Announcing the
2019 KANG Spring Retreat

March 21 – 24, 2019

Camp Allen

Navasota, Texas

Join us for a relaxing weekend of camaraderie and knitting at Camp Allen.

Our spotlight project will be Sequence Knitting with Doris Scott. Doris has been in the yarn business for many years and is currently the proprietor of Yarn Store Boutique. A patient and gifted teacher, she is excited about the opportunity to bring a sequence knitting program to the retreat. We will be working on a sampler scarf exploring stitches, with the opportunity to start on a luxurious shawl.

There will also be time aplenty for free knitting, stitch marker crafting, field trips to yarn stores and exploring the outdoors. On Saturday afternoon, there will be a tour of the Independence Farmstead Fiber Mill.

In the evenings, we will gather for games, gabbing and more knitting!

Cost for the retreat is $380 (double occupancy) and includes 3 nights and 4 days at Camp Allen, all meals, and a 24/7 beverage/lite snack bar. Also included will be stitch marker crafting, game prizes, and gifts for all.

Grab your roommate and make plans to join us for the KANG Spring Retreat!

Registration opens on February 15, 2019, on the KANG website.
